18 IRS Offices Will Provide Information On 90-Day Wage Freeze Program

IRS To Answer Price, Wage Freeze Questions

R. F. Harless, District Director of Internal Revenue Service for Northern California announced today that eighteen IRS offices in Northern California will provide information and guidance regarding the President's 90 day wage, price and rent freeze program.

Mr. Harless stated that the following offices will answer questions the public may have in regard to the freezing and will also process complaints concerned with alleged program violations.

"The IRS was asked to assist the Office of Emergency Preparedness (OEP) in the program because the IRS has the resources and personnel to answer the public's questions and staff of experienced investigators in almost every important population center in the United States."

The Director also stated that, "Although the IRS has the added responsibility of servicing the public with regard to the wage, price and rent freeze the Internal Revenue Service will continue to provide tax information assistance in all of its offices."

Business and industry executives and officials are reminded that the Economic Stabilization Order No. 1 requires that all records reflecting prices for commodities or service shall be kept. According to Mr. Harless, these records are available for public inspection. New records concerning prices are also to be kept.

All employers are reminded also that they shall maintain and preserve all records which reflect the rates of wages, salaries or other forms of compensation paid during the base period. The base period is for July 16 to August 14, 1971.

Labor Day Weekend Poses Threat To "Summer Athletes"

With the long Labor Day weekend just around the corner, those sometimes too energetic "summer athletes" face a special threat, according to a local doctor.

Dr. Samuel Engholm, Jr. of Monterey, a director of the Monterey Bay Chiropractic Society, warns summer athletes they're prospective victims of sometimes serious health problems.

"When long summer weekends roll around, it's always a sure bet they'll be followed by the appearance in doctor's offices of a number of new patients, many of whom have suffered sprains and strains of the back due to their own negligence," says Dr. Engholm.

"What's even worse," he says, "there are thousands of victims of spinal misalignment who do not recognize their problem."

They do not seek health care until pain pops up -- perhaps six months or a year from the actual injury -- and possibly in a part of the body remote from the spine, says the doctor.

He says many persons do not keep in good physical condition year-round, and then overdo with too much activity during summer weekends, especially three-day weekends.

The doctor recommends five rules to help guard against health problems:

1 -- Try to keep in condition year-round. Establish an exercise routine for "off-season."

2 -- Don't overdo it. Learn to pace yourself and recognize when you're tired.

3 -- Don't try to prove how strong you are or how young you feel. Act your age and engage only in activities in keeping with your age.

4 -- Be careful of fast starts and stops, twisting, unusual positions and jarring body contact.

5 -- Practice preventive spinal care by having a spinal examination at regular intervals.

Next Monday is Labor Day. This Holiday was established as a National Holiday many years ago to commemorate and to honor the "Working Man." It used to be a day of festive celebrations held by Labor Unions and their supporters. They held big parades down the main streets of almost every large city in the country which ended with a huge picnic at a nearby park. Politicians used these picnics to shake hands with the "Working Man" and his family and generally a good time was had by all. This has all but disappeared from the American scene today. The Labor Unions have lost their vitality, the rank and file members no longer actively participate in its activities. There is no longer any struggle for recognition. The only industry which is not organized is the Agricultural Industry. They are still struggling for recognition from the most backward segment of our society, the Farmers. The farmers are backward in their attitude towards organized labor but they certainly haven't been backward in their acceptance of modern methods nor modern pesticides with which to increase their yield. The large corporate farms have taken over the Agriculture business and therefore there is a struggle still going on in that industry between Labor and Management. I was very active in the labor movement in the early days of the C.I.O. back in the late thirties and forties. The depression had just ended and Roosevelt HUGE LAKE -- Clouds form pleasant patterns over the calm waters of Lake Nacimiento, as two boys try their fishing luck from a dock at Oak Shores, a multi-million dollar private family resort-recreation area being developed by General Resource Development Corporation. The lake has 17 miles of open water for high-speed motorboat runs and water-skiing and 165 miles of intriguing shoreline where largemouth bass, white bass, catfish, crappie and bluegill perch lurk. Oak Shores has just opened its fourth increment of choice water-front and lake-view lots at this increasingly popular lake. It is the only private development on the lake and is located on the north shore, 25 miles west of Paso Robles in San Luis Obispo County.

Suicide Prevention Center

Monterey County Suicide Prevention Center will begin training of volunteers, ages 18 and over, this month. The great increase of callers to the center must be met with persons interested in giving at least 4 hours a week of time manning crisis phones. The volunteer is carefully screened by a psychiatrist and receives nine sessions of training in the "the art of listening" and related subjects, before going on duty at Suicide Prevention Center Office. Training sessions are held twice weekly, evenings of Tuesday and Thursdays, with two hours each session. For the warm-hearted people of our communities, this is an excellent opportunity to relate to persons in need. Both callers and volunteers represent a cross-section of everyone living in Monterey County. For information on how to become a volunteer, please call 373-0713, or write: Monterey County Suicide Prevention Center, PO Box 3241,

Community Meeting To Be Heled

A Peninsula wide community meeting will be held Wednesday evening, September 1, 1971, at the Monterey Peninsula Area Service Center, 1580 Del Monte Boulevard, Seaside, California, 8:00 p.m. The purpose of the meeting is to set priorities and objectives, for the next program year. This is an important part of the Anti Poverty Council function. It is here that low-income people have their opportunity to help plan the approach to solving their needs, as they relate to getting out of the poverty cycle. This annual meeting is generally referred to by OEO as Caucus for the Poor. All low-income people of the Monterey Peninsula are urged to come, and participate. The public is also invited.

Air Pollution Warnings

It's no secret that on most days of the year air pollution levels reach proportions that pose a health hazard to millions of Americans.

But how can one tell when pollution levels are dangerous enough to warrant taking special precautions? And what are some of those precautions?

According to a September Reader's Digest article, there is "one simple, infallible test" to determine when air pollution has reached a level harmful to your health: "if you can smell it or taste it, it's bad enough to hurt you."

On such days, advises the article, everyone should consider the following precautions:

Restrict activity. "When smog is heavy, rest can save lives," says Dr. Bertram W. Carnow of the University of Illinois School of Medicine. An afternoon nap can be helpful; so can an early bedtime. Try to avoid hard activities, whether indoor or outdoor.

Stay indoors as much as possible. Irritant levels indoors are generally half those outdoors, or less, according to Dr. John R. Goldsmith of California's anti-pollution program.

If you smoke cigarettes, smoke less or not at all. And if you don't smoke, try to avoid smoke-filled rooms and smoking cars on public vehicles.

Don't raise dust. Avoid using the fireplace or incinerator, and postpone vacuuming or other dust-raising activities.

Control humidity. Obviously this is difficult outdoors, but a humidifier or room vaporizer indoors can be beneficial.

If you must drive, avoid busy streets and expressways. These thoroughfares are where most smog begins. If you're walking, avoid curbs and hold your breath when a passing bus blasts you with exhaust fumes.

For those who suffer from respiratory ailments, additional precautions may be necessary and should be worked out with a physician. But every citizen, healthy or ill, should work to make sure that anti-pollution laws are strong enough and are enforced.

Residential Rents Move Up In California

If it is any solace to the California renter who has seen his living accommodation rates go up higher and higher, he is not alone.

The median rental among all California renters increased a total of 182 per cent from 1950 to 1970, according to Property Research Financial Corporation, Los Angeles-based real estate investment banker.

This rise is about three times faster than the 61 per cent jump in the cost of living index since 1950. In the last ten years median rents rose 64 per cent, about twice the 31 per cent increase in the cost of living index during that period. Property Research Financial Corporation, Los Angeles-based real estate investment banker.

This rise is about three times faster than the 61 per cent jump in the cost of index 1950. In the last ten years median rents rose 64 per cent, about twice the 31 per cent increase in the cost of living index during that period. Property Research said.

U.S. Census figures show that in 1970 median rents paid by Californians was $113 per month, compared with $69 in 1960 and $40 in 1950. Property Research said. Median rent is the mid-point among all rents paid by Californians. In other words, as many people paid above $113 as paid below it.

"Perhaps more indicative of the change in rental rates," said John L. Holleran, Property Research president, "is the fact that now 60 per cent of California rental units is over $100 per month, almost four times the per cent in that category ten years ago. And 20 years ago, only 3.2 per cent of rentals were paying over $100."

He also pointed out that 23.4 percent of living units in 1970 rented for over $150, compared with 2.7 per cent in 1960. These units were not even categorized separately in 1950. Also, 1970 figures showed that dwellings renting at over $200 accounted for 6.9 per cent of the total -- the first time this rental class was separated.

The "inexpensive" rental units has all but disappeared, with only 2.1 per cent of the total under $40 in 1970, Mr. Holleran said. Ten years ago 10.5 per cent of units rented at under $40 and 20 years ago 48.2 per cent.

Mr. Holleran attributed the rise in shelter costs to both the general increase in price and wage levels, and the constant up-grading in quality and amenities of rental units.

"Renters are demanding and receiving more space, more amenities and more quality -- and all that costs money," he said.

Mr. Holleran noted too that California, long a stronghold of the single family home, is moving toward the multiple and that the rate of renters to owners has been on the upturn for some time.

California Bumper Law To Save Millions of Dollars After 1974

California's new "bumper law" requiring sturdier bumpers on cars sold in the state starting with the 1974 models eventually will save California car owners at least $15 million per year, the Insurance Information Institute said today.

The savings could be twice that amount, the I.I.I. said, depending on how much car manufacturers increase their prices for building in the new bumpers. They will have to withstand impact of a front-end rear-end crash into a barrier at five miles per hour without damage to the car.

The I.I.I. said that its estimate of dollar savings was based only on insurance payments, losses that might be avoided by the new bumpers. The estimate does not begin to measure the more important matter of personal injuries and the medical expenses which might be avoided. Neither does the estimate include losses not covered by insurance but paid by individual car owners, the I.I.I. said.

Dr. William Haddon, Jr., president of the Insurance Institute for Highway Safety, has challenged the idea that better bumpers need cost more to consumers. In testimony before Congress earlier this year, Dr. Haddon said that by choosing the option of doing away with "snout configurations and fancy tinsel cosmetic," and using the freed-up space for proper energy-absorbing structures, "manufacturers could reduce the initial price of the vehicle or, at worst, maintain it at its present level...."

The full human safety and property protection value of the just-signed bumper law will be felt for some time because it does not apply until the 1974 model year, and then only the new cars will have the benefit of the bumpers.

In crash tests reported to Congress, the Insurance Institute for Highway Safety said that popular-priced 1971 cars cost an average of $329.28 to repair after a five-mile front-end crash into a barrier, up from $215.64 for the same crash test on 1970 models.

BLACK WOMEN ANSWER THE CALL TO UNITY

Black women across the nation are answering the call to unity issued by Ruby Dee, National Chairman of The Black Women's Unity Drive, sponsored by the National Council of Negro Women.

Four hundred women in 35 states will serve as leaders to mobilize their communities for action. They will sponsor programs geared to eliminate racism, poverty, hunger, fight drug addiction, promote decent housing and child care centers, and assume responsibility for assuring quality education for all.

Here in Monterey County, Mrs. Marion Woodie, local chairman for the drive, has established a committee for over 50 women from all walks of life.

A how-to-do-it kit and community check list has been distributed which will help participants to pinpoint their specific problem in the areas of poverty, civil and welfare rights, education, consumer fraud protection, opportunities for and with youth, decent housing and home ownership for low-income families, day care services and job producing cooperations.

Emphasis throughout this nationwide Black Women's Unity Drive will be in maintaining dialogue between persons of diverse backgrounds and to closing gaps between city and rural areas, middle class and poor.

Mrs. Woodie said "we must revitalize our people. Those among us who have achieved a degree of prosperity cannot dissociate ourselves from the poor". She continued to say "wherever the Black American is handicapped, is frustrated, in a racist society, the National Council of Negro Women must be at work. It is by understanding who we are and where we are that we will have the dynamics necessary to grow and take action."

Joining Miss Dee on the Black Women's Unity Drive Committee are: Denise Nichols, Gail Fisher, Nina Simone, Diahann Carroll, Hilda Haynes and Leslie Uggams. Each will lend their time and talents to tell the story of the National Council of Negro Women and to strengthen the ties among the Black women. Black women can make the difference.

Members and interested women will meet for a business meeting on Wednesday, September 8th at 7:30 p.m. in the Community Center, Olympia Plaza, Seaside.

COFFEE FOR NEW WIVES
New Navy brides (married within the past year), new to military life and the Naval Postgraduate School, are invited to meet and chat informally with Rear Admiral and Mrs. A. S. Goodfellow and to meet other new military wives at a coffee on September 2 at 8:00 p.m. at Mrs. Robert Gaines' Quarters "N" at the Postgraduate School. Reservations may be made with Mrs. James Roorbach, 372-4115.

COMMUNITY PICNIC
Citadel Lodge #1329, I.B.P.O.E. of W. of Seaside, sponsored one of the largest picnics at Balado Park last month. 1100 guest from the Monterey Peninsula attended this free affair.

Lodge members prepared the food and started to bar-b-que delicious ribs at the break of day. Guest, young and old, also enjoyed participating in touch football, softball and golf. Live music was also provided by a local combo that plays at the Elks Rest on Weekends.

Mr. Edward Turner, chairman of the Entertainment Committee for the Lodge, said "That we want the people of this community to know that their lodge appreciated the support this community has given in the past, and hope that such support will continue in the future."

Courtesy is given to Beatty Motors, Hi-Way Market, Ron's Package Store, Cork'N Bottle, Cardinal Liquors, Gateway Liquors and Union Ice Company for their donations, which added much to the success of the picnic.

MARTHA RAYE SPECIAL FORCES REUNION GUEST

Entertainer Martha Raye, a Lieutenant Colonel in the Army Nurse Corps Reserve, will be the honored guest at this year's Special Forces Reunion to be held Sept 6 in the Main Ballroom of Fort Ord's NC Club.

No host cocktails will be served from 7 to 8 p.m. and dinner from 8 to p.p.m. Speeches and skits will be presented from 9 to 9:30 p.m. followed by dancing with music by Jim Bar Trio.

Cost is $15 per couple, $7.50 stag. For further information and reservation for the reunion, sponsored by Training Command, contact CPT Wyke at 3466 or 6047 or CPT Carr at 2082 or 373-6203.

WAX MUSEUM FEATURES A RAFT OF FAMOUS PEOPLE

Anyone planning a trip to San Francisco over the Labor Day weekend might want to pay a visit to the Wax Museum on Fisherman's Wharf.

The displays include 200 lifesize wax figures by Madame Tussaud of London. These are arranged in 6- scenes, including the Hall of Religions, showing the Sermon on the Mount and Moses and the Ten Commandments.

The Fairyland in Wax boasts Tom Sawyer and Huck Finn on their raft, Peter Pan and a Fairyland castle with Prince Charming and Sleeping Beauty.

Mummyman, Count Dracula and Wolf Man inhabit the Chamber of Horrors and the Hall of Famous People includes 12 US president, Liz Taylor, Willie Mays and Sigmund Freud.

The Wax Museum is open seven days a week all year long. Until September 15, the Museum will be open 9 a.m. until 11 p.m. Sunday through Thursday, and until Midnight on Friday and Saturday. After September 15, the hours will be 10 a.m. until 10 p.m., Sunday through Thursday, and until 11 p.m. Friday and Saturday.

SPECIAL SERVICES SCHEDULES DANCING LESSONS ON POST

Lessons in both acrobatic-ballet for children, ages 8-15, and modern jazz dance for adults will be conducted within the Fort Ord complex under the sponsorship of the Entertainment Section of Special Services.

Instruction will be directed by Susan Ellenbast, whose academic and professional experience includes a B.A. in Dance from the University of California at Lrvine and work as a member and soloist with the Celeste Ballet and the Zicoeva Dancers. Classes will be held at Bldg. 1288 on 4th St. between 3rd and 4th Avenue on Tuesdays at 2:30 p.m. for acrobatic-ballet and at 3:30 p.m. for modern jazz dance. Classes will also be held at the Tine Barn Theatre on Pyl Bolic Road at Presidio of Monterey on Thursdays at 2:30 p.m. for acrobatic-ballet and at 3:30 p.m. for modern jazz dance.

For further information, call the Entertainment Section at 5358. The classes will be open to all members of the military and their dependent.

New Weather Station

The ascent of an instrumented weather balloon marked the official opening of a new weather data station at San Jose State College that will aid the Bay Area's cities and counties in their fight against air pollution.

The Environmental Meteorological Support Unit (EMSU) a subsidiary of the National Weather Service, will monitor atmospheric conditions of the Bay Area, watching for conditions that will promote the likelihood of air pollution.

Located on the south campus of the College, the EMSU will release instrumented balloons twice daily to take measurements up to 10,000 feet above the Santa Clara Valley. A device called a "radiosonde" will send back temperature, barometric pressure and humidity data, stated Dr. Albert Miller, chairman of the SJSC Meteorological Department. Wind speed and direction will be determined from equipment on the ground tracking the flight of the balloon.

Forecasters will particularly watch for stagnant conditions produced by a combination of a long-lasting temperature inversion and light wind movement. Under these conditions warm air aloft acts as an invisible ceiling on the colder air and concentrates the polluted air near the surface. The longer such conditions prevail, the greater the potential for a serious build-up of air pollution, Dr. Miller explained.

When this information is known in advance it is possible for industrial and other possible polluters to postpone their emissions to a later time when conditions would be less conducive to pollution.

The station will be staffed by three regular weather service employees and meteorology students from SJSC. A van equipped to take readings at distant Bay Area sites will be used to provide complete information on the area.

SUPPORTER

Americans in all walks of life have supported CARE SINCE IT STARTED SERVICE YEARS AGO. One of the first contributors was President Harry S. Truman, who gave $1,500 to send CARE food packages to World War II victims in Europe.

Hunter safety instructors throughout the state are reminding students of the dangers of shooting into orchards, vineyards and fields with bearing crops.

According to Hilton Bergstrom, hunter safety training officer with the DFG, prospective dove and pigeon hunters are being reminded that shooting on, above or into posted lands is prohibited under sections of both the Fish and Game and Penal codes.

had given the unions the go ahead to organize with the Wagner Act as their guide. Many bloody battles resulted from the efforts of the unions to organize and the retaliation from the management in the use of hired gunmen and guards to prevent the organization. In those days they called out the National Guard to fight striking pickets instead of students as they do now. The Labor movement was the spearhead of the "Progressive" segment of our society in those days. They participated in every political campaign and large segments of the Labor Movement were active in forming the "Independent Progressive Party" which tried to elect former Vice-President Henry Wallace to the Presidency. They failed miserably but they were able to put up a heluva fight and forced the two major parties to take better positions on many of the issues of the day. I'm giving you all of this background on the Labor Unions to get to the point I want to make on this Labor Day. No longer are the Labor Unions vital, seething, active masses of humans fighting to better the conditions of their fellow man. They have become powerful political machines run from the top and have become even more conservative in their political stance than their adversaries, the Large Corporations. Let's examine some of the positions taken by the big labor leaders today as against those taken by the leaders in Industry and Commerce. 1. Every large corporation and industry has for many years recognized the need for more integration of the minority members of our society into their organizations. True, many of these companies had to be nudged slightly by some pretty mad people before they changed their attitudes and many of them have only made token moves towards real recognition of the minority worker. However, top management has made great strides towards hiring and upgrading of minority workers. Not so in the labor unions. They have fought tooth and nail to prevent any integration into their sacrosanct craft unions. They are beginning to break down a little through government prodding by the setting up of Affirmative Action Plans such as we recently set up here in Monterey County. Here we had a cooperative group in the Labor and Industry camp, but in many areas this has not been so. 2. Another example is the stand of Industry on the Vietnam War. For years many leaders of Industry have pointed out to the president and congress the folly of this unfortunate war, leading them at one time to the president of the Bank of America. He made speeches all over the country calling for the end to this horrible war. Not so George Meany, the president of the A.F.L.-C.I.O. He has been the country's greatest "Hawk." He calls for the continuance of the war until "communism is brought to its knees" no matter how many American boys it takes to do it. He is supposed to be the leader of the "working class" and yet he calls for a continuance of a war which certainly is of no boon to any worker, except those few who might be working in strictly war manufacture and even those are losing their sons in the battle-fields of Vietnam. Big business has seen the folly of this unnecessary war but "Big Labor" still cries "Kill." 3. How about the position of Labor and Management on the issue of President Nixon's extension of a hand of forgiveness and welcome after 20 years of ignoring China's Millions. President George Meany of the A.F.L.-C.I.O. jumps up and down accusing Nixon of selling out to the communists. On the other hand, management has for years been urging the recognition of Red China because they see every other country in the world trading with China and American Industry is not allowed to sell its goods in China. One more issue and I will end this column, the issue of Wage-Price Control. The unions were supposed to have been fighting for a halt to inflation, yet when a wage-price freeze is finally instituted by the President, about five years too late, the unions cry loud and clear that they are still entitled to get their raises. Now I can see that some of the already negotiated raises should be put into effect and I see where the wage-price council is going to allow them to go through. But even with all of the inequities in the President's new wage-price freeze at least a start has been made. Let us try to live with it and straighten out the inequities such as no freeze in interest and excess profits. At least prices have been held and in the ninety days of the freeze maybe some more permanent guidelines will be set. It really hurts me to see the decadence of the top leadership of labor. It only goes to prove the proverb that "POWER CORRUPTS AND ABSOLUTE POWER CORRUPTS ABSOLUTELY."

Have a happy Labor Day weekend.

Mc Grath-Hill Nuptials

A pre-wedding shower for Maureen McGrath was given by her godmother, Miss Josephine DiIagio at her Monterey home.

Miss Maureen McGrath and Mr. Rudiger Joseph Hill were married June 11, 1971 in Pacific Grove. While Mr. Hill is at Fort Lewis for basic training (Army) the new Mrs. Hill is residing in Seaside. Mrs. Hill is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald McGrath of Seaside. She has one sister, Colleen and two brothers, Brian and Kevin. Mr. Hill is the son of Sgt. and Mrs. R. Hill of Seaside.

As I See It

By Mel Vercoe

To: Hon. Mao Tse Tung
General Manager, People's Republic of China
Dear Hon. Mao:

Because our Hon. President wants us to be friends so we can sell you some machinery, I wish to do my bit by warning you about some pitfalls that we have had trouble with, in that said pitfalls could perhaps give so much trouble in China that you would not be able to pay for the machinery. 1. Let the Chinese people vote for their leaders. We do not do this in America. Instead, we have what is known as the electoral voting system, which was set up originally to restrict the vote only to those intelligent enough to keep the status quo in power so the boat would not get rocked. Now, the boat is rocking anyway, and we can't stop it because our people do not have the right to vote for our President. In 1968, for example, my vote for the lesser of two evils (a fellow by the name of Hubert) was thrown out and my vote counted for Premier Nixon, and well, you read the papers - you know what happened after that.

2. Provide your people with some interesting worthwhile sports for pastimes. Although we have baseball and beer drinking and recently ping pong, we still prefer a game we play in our courtrooms called, "Let's harass the cops and turn all the criminals loose, just for kicks." Actually, it is a lot of fun, but it is now creating some problems. For instance, you may have read of a more or less minor incident where a Lt. Calley, because somebody slipped up and selected some intelligent jurors, was sentenced to a life in prison for murdering over a hundred people. Then our President, this fellow Nixon I mentioned, decided Lt. Calley's feelings might be hurt if he had to look at jail bars, so he was moved to a house, complete with his best girl friend, and now a few days ago his sentence was reduced by the first review board to twenty years. The problem, Hon. Mao, is that by the time his case has been through all the review boards he will not only be set free, but they will give him permission to commit four or five hundred murders extra to make up for the embarrassment the whole thing has caused him. This, in turn, creates a certain amount of uncertainty in the stock market, and price of bacon went up four cents just in the past week.

3. Don't let unemployment get to be such a problem that people are out of work. Technology and increased production did now work in our case. We thought more automobiles would help by creating jobs fixing tires and selling gas, but all they did was increase the birth rate. We thought a good healthy war would make more jobs, but all we did was speed up automation, and we even had to lay off the guy who invented the automation. 4. Don't let the Russians upset you into spending money on overkill. We can now kill every Russian, plus everybody else, with our nuclear bombs ten times over, providing we can find the parts after the first bomb goes off. This has increased our problems with inflation, which is becoming almost as serious a problem as Beale records and marijuana, not to mention Martha Mitchell. But be of good cheer. The Russians won't be forced to wipe you out until just before you are ready to wipe out the Russians. Write soon.

Farallons Will Be State Game Refuge

The Farallon Islands and waters within a radius of one mile of the islands will become a state game refuge under terms of a bill passed by the Legislature and signed into law by Governor Reagan.

According to the Department of Fish and Game, the Farallons, 21 miles west of San Francisco, have the most important seabird nesting area off the California coast. Recent surveys indicate that 150,000 breeding birds of 11 species use the islands as a principal nesting area.

It will be unlawful to possess a firearm within the refuge unless it is unloaded and encased.

The Fish and Game Code provision allowing fishermen to take seals or sea lions that are damaging equipment or catches does not apply within the refuge. Sport and commercial fishing will not be restricted, however.

The legislation, which is designed to provide greater protection for this area will become effective 61 days after adjournment of the Legislature.

Jerry Lewis Telethon Repeated

A super-spectacular TV show, which has smashed all records for money-raising programs of its kind, will be seen again over the Labor Day weekend. It is Jerry Lewis' Telethon '71, to raise funds for the fight against muscular dystrophy and related disorders.

Lewis' 20-hour show will be seen "live" and in color over station KBBK TV, Channel 44, San Francisco, and KNTV, Channel 11, San Jose among 115 other national stations. Starting at 7:30 P.M. Sunday, September 5, it will continue without interruption until 3:30 P.M. Monday, September 6.

This is the sixth consecutive Labor Day Telethon that Lewis -- for 20 years National Chairman of the Muscular Dystrophy Association of America -- will be doing from New York City. His show last year, seen over a 65-station hook-up, brought in a record breaking $5,093,385 in pledges and contributions. The exuberant comedian, unwilling to prognosticate what his show will bring in this year for the fight against muscular dystrophy, will only say that the greatly expanded national network should help him establish another "first". He is confident this year's show will be bigger and better than ever, for he reports, many stars of stage, screen and television have agreed to appear with him on his non-stop, extravaganza.

Planned Welfare Grants

SACRAMENTO -- The state Department of Social Welfare announced today that the planned increases in welfare grants on October 1, 1971, are not subject to the wage and price freeze announced by President Richard M. Nixon last week.

"We have received information today from the Office of Emergency Preparedness in San Francisco indicating that welfare payments are not and, therefore, are not subject to the current freeze," Deputy Director John A. Svahn, said today. The increase, authorized by the Legislature in the Welfare Reform Act of 1971, raises welfare grants in the Aid to Families with Dependent Children program to a level 30 percent higher than that paid prior to June 1 of this year. Svahn indicated that with this clearance from the Federal Government, the increased grants will go into effect October 1.

Grooving Around the Peninsula

with BETTY MANN

Hi There Fellow Peninsulans:

Ye Olde Betty, is back to Ye Olde pad and pencil after a three week vacation to the southland area of Fort Sill Okla., and a sightseeing fun trip to Six Flags over Texas, the southlands replica of Disneyland. My trip from Seaside, to Oklahoma, was very exciting as well as interesting. Yours truly rode as far as Okla. City, as a automobile guest of Photographer John Perkins, and wife Sarah and their charming little daughter Juanita, whom I adopted as my play niece enroute to Okla. Juanita, kept everyone in a very lively mood. Also riding in along this vacationing entourage, was Mrs. Dorothy Hill and her charming teenage daughter Gloria.

The trip started out from Seaside at 12 p.m. with Johnny shaking his head at the overabundance of luggage that we five females had crammed into his new 1971, Oldsmobile station wagon. After leaving Seaside, we were on the outskirts of Salinas, when Johnny remembered that he had left all of his money at home so back to Seaside, we came. Then suddenly everyone remembered that all of us had forgotten to eat breakfast, so we proceeded to a restaurant, and I believe we finally arrived outside of Salinas at 3:00 p.m. And then havoc struck! Yours truly, encountered a bad case of diarrhea!!! After a series stops at six service stations from Salinas, to Bakersfield, we found a grocery store, a bottle of Kao Pectate was purchased which had the trick peace and tranquility was felt. While driving along the scenic highway, we stopped and toured many historic sites and observed many phenomena such as the massive meteor crater in Ariconia which is one of the largest craters in the world. We also observed many Indian reservations in Arizona and New Mexico. The most beautiful sight to see is Albuquerque,

New Mexico at night. The beautiful brilliant lights of this vast city is indeed a spectacular sight. On the outskirts of Albuquerque, New Mexico, Yours Truly and Johnny observed a sign reading, "Don't stop at Chief Yellowhorses or you're liable to get Wienered??? Johnny and I craching Oklahoma City, I was deposited at Will Roger Airport, where my sister and brother-in-law, Barbara and Richard Bell, were waiting to meet this Calif. hitch-hiker, to continue the drive to Fort Sill, Okla, where my brother-in-law is stationed with the army.

My traveling friends continued their trip on to St. Stephens, S.C. where Dorothy and Gloria were to be deposited for visit with Dot's family Johnny, Sarah, and Juanita continued on, for a vacation and a family reunion, with Sarah's family in her hometown of Winston Salem, N.C. Afterwards they were to drive on to Dallas, Texas, to visit with John's family.

Back to yours truly, after a grueling, sweltering 110 degrees temperatures at Fort Sill, was happy to get back to the good olde Monterey Peninsula, where the temperature ranges around 60 degrees. After arriving back on the Peninsula, I found many happenings had taken place. Such as, Delores Hebert, who was running for Queen, in a money raising contest for the ladies of the Elks, won the coveted queens title and crown, although she had been away on a month's vacation in New Brunswick, N.J. her hometown. That's what I would call getting your stuff together and beforehand maintaining it.

The evening I arrived back in town, I found an engraved invitation, to a welcome home cocktail party. Mary Powell, was hosting in honor of her charming hubby, Louis Powell, who had just arrived home the day before from a 12 month tour in Vietnam. Over 50 persons attended this swinging set. The hostess was very elegantly attired in red velvet hot pants hostess attire, along with the other female guests who looked sporting in exciting fashions from Hot Pants, to long evening skirts.

The following evening Marion Woodie, and hubby Richard Woodie, gave a cocktail party resplendent with sould food, Jazz, combo, etc. Even the Drifters, who were playing at Fort Ord's NCO Club that evening, finished their act and followed yours truly and friends to the swinging set at the Woodies, lovely spanish adobe home. The Drifters, enjoyed the set so much they stayed all nite and departed at 11 p.m. the next day for an engagement in Sacramento. The following day they drove back to thank the Woodies, for their charming hospitality.

Further on in Seaside, and whereabouts, Jane Van Hook, hosted a "cheer her up," her party in her lovely home on Del Monte Beach, in honor of Fredrica Evans, whose husband, W. J. Evans, was returning to Vietnam, after a two weeks R. R. vacation here with his wife. Jane greeted the guest-of-honor Fredrica, with a bag of items which each one of her friends had placed in a bag. These gifts were to keep her cheered while hubby is away. Adelighful and hilarious time dominated the evening.

This week my telephone rang with excited parents calling to ask, "Betty, can you or someone do something about that filthy film "Sweet Sweetback", that is showing at the Del Rey?" That evening I attended the showing. Believe me, as tan as I am, I blushed throught the showing. What is this world coming to when a seven-year old boy is shown cavorting in an indecent episode, with a 40year old female?

Parents from henceforth on chech the movies guide chart, to see if the movie is rated "R" which means restricted. Your children will then not be exposed to pornographic type movies of this sort being shown everywhere.

"Orchids" to the Del Rey for remodeling and creating a nice atmosphere for movie goers here in Seaside. Please continue to bring movies, for children as well as for adults. Right on to ya'll at the Del Rey. Keep on showing first rate movies.

Until Next Week.
Betty.

Senior Citizens Are Alerted

More than 35,000 of California's senior citizens have apparently forgotten to file claims for property tax assistance, according to Martin Huff, Executive Officer of the Franchise Tax Board.

The assistance is a reimbursement of a portion of the 1970-71 property taxes paid, Huff said, and the average payment in 1970 was $136. More than 70,000 senior citizens filed claims during 1970, but only 33,000 have filed this year.

Senior Citizens property tax assistance is in addition to the $750 reduction in assessed valuation under the Homeowners Property Tax Relief Program, he said, and should not be confused with it. Persons of the senior citizens program are entitled to receive the benefits of both programs.

To be eligible for senior citizens property tax assistance, claimants must be over 65 years of age as of January 1, 1971; must own and occupy their own home; must have paid the property taxes on the home; and must have a total household income of less than $3,500. Qualified individuals can obtain forms from any office of the Franchise Tax Board or by writing to Senior Citizens Property Tax Assistance, P. O. Box 1588, Sacramento, CA 95807.

Claims for Senior Citizens Property Tax Assistance should be filed as soon as possible.

Repairs At Seacliff

The California Department of Parks and Recreation announced that the 26 trailer sites at Seacliff State Beach in Santa Cruz County, the most popular campsite in the State Park System, will be closed for repairs from December 1 to December 17 this year.

The Department reported that during the closure, the sewer hookups will be replaced, tables and water hookups will be checked and repaired, and electrical hookups which may become hazardous in the near future will be repaired or replaced as needed. Persons wishing to reserve a campsite at Seacliff should plan their trip before or after the closure.

Educator Returns

Mrs. Lucille Scholefield of the Monterey Unified School District has returned from a two-week Public Relations Workshop, held at the San Diego campus of the United States International University.

The workshop was sponsored by the California Higher Education Association for the purpose of training California Teachers Association leaders. Mr. Frank O. McIntyre, a nationally known public relations expert, was the workshop instructor. "Since education is a critical issue of real concern to teachers and parents, there is a need for better communication with the school community." Mrs. Scholefield stated.

Mrs. Scholefield, Past President of the Monterey Bay Teachers Association, is presently serving as President of the Central Coast Section - CTA composed of 4,500 members from Monterey, San Benito, Santa Cruz and San Luis Pabis Counties.
